

Telwares Receives 2007 Product of the Year Award from Communications Solutions

Mobility Lifecycle Management Honored for Outstanding Innovation

PARSIPPANY, NJ, June 5, 2008 - Telwares (www.telwares.com) announced today that Technology Marketing Corporation's (TMC) Communications Solutions (www.tmcnet.com/comsol) has named Telwares' Mobility Lifecycle Management solution as a recipient of a 2007 Product of the Year Award.

The Telwares Mobility Lifecycle Management solution helps companies manage the complexity of the complete mobility lifecycle, from policy to procurement to device management. This solution enables organizations to derive significant visibility, control and savings through contract negotiation, audit and optimization, inventory and invoice management, procurement, help desk support, device recycling and over-the-air software updates.

"We are thrilled to receive this recognition," said Bill Walsh, Telwares chief operating officer. "This award affirms the leadership position of Telwares as a provider of global telecommunications spend management solutions. Our combination of unique intellectual capital, state-of-the-art seamless technology platform, and years of expertise helping organizations effectively maximize their telecommunications resources and spending will continue to drive Telwares success into the future."

"Telwares has been recognized with a 2007 Product of the Year Award for their excellence in the advancement of voice, data and/or video communications," said Rich Tehrani, TMC president and group editor-in-chief of Communications Solutions. "Telwares has proven they are committed to quality and excellence in solutions that benefit the customer experience as well as ROI for the companies that use them. I am pleased to honor their hard work and accomplishments and look forward to more innovative solutions from them in the future."

The eighth annual Communications Solutions Product of the Year Award recognizes the vision, leadership and attention to detail that are the hallmarks of the prestigious award. The most innovative products and services brought to market in 2007 were selected as recipients of this year's Communications Solutions Product of the Year Award for their groundbreaking achievement.

The 2007 Product of the Year Award winners can be found on the Communications Solutions Web site.
